Artist Biography

Douglas Paisley (b. 1952, Cleveland, Ohio) is an artist currently based in Brooklyn, New York, and Gotts Island, Maine. He is interested in how historical memory and erasure impact the body and shape our capacity for intimacy and connection.

His work has been included in group exhibitions at NARS Foundation, Brooklyn New York, The Whitney Center for the Arts, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, The Lichtenstein Center, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, The Rudd Art Museum, North Adams, Massachusetts, The Luther W. Brady Gallery at George Washington University, Washington DC, and the Wassaic Project, Wassaic, New York.

From 1992-2020, he was the printmaking assistant at Williams College, while moonlighting as a muralist, set designer, writer, singer, and documentary filmmaker. He is the recipient of a Berkshire Taconic Foundation A.R.T. grant and fellowships at the Ucross Foundation, the Vermont Studio Center, and the Virginia Center for the Creative Arts. He received his BFA from Bennington College in 1991.
