

Third

John Hee Taek Chae

May 15th - June 20th, 2026

Opening Reception: May 15th 6-8pm

79 Leonard St, SBE
New York, NY 10013

D. D. D. is happy to announce John Hee Taek Chae's upcoming solo exhibition with the gallery, to open May 15th, 6 - 8 pm.

Titled Third, this marks the first solo exhibition of Chae's work since the gallery's relocation to our Leonard Street location, and his third with the gallery overall. The title also refers to his newfound status as a father and his newborn son's identity as a third-generation Korean American, brought into the world as Chae enters his third year living in a rural part of western New York.

In this exhibition, the artist once again applies his intense scrutiny of the past, present, and future through found and excavated images. Sources of which range from "Hometown Heroes" banners often found in small towns to familial archives, current events, and the art histories of Korea, Europe, and the United States. The artist then uses his subjectivity as a sharp scalpel with which to dissect and reconfigure the realities that gave rise to these images. The resulting work takes the form of two-sided banners deep in affect with collapsed propaganda, and paintings of masks, both as historical remnants, and as those worn today.

Anchoring the exhibition are two large paintings by Chae, Quilt and The Death of the Buddha. Quilt, a reconstructed painting made from previous paintings and old military patches, serves as a record that traces through time the familial, personal, and professional. The Death of the Buddha, fittingly the third time Chae has painted the motif, attempts to reconcile such patchwork. The complex psychic and symbolic permutations of the exhibition find an allegorical moment of respite in the Buddha painting, where the central motif presents an alternative proposition, a site of meditations juxtaposed against unceasing re-generation.
